

OUR LINE OF FUR CAPES Is larger and more complete than ever. Comprises garments in ELECTRIC SEAL ASTRACHAN WOOL SEAL NUTRIA MARTEN MONKEY Sheared and Pulled Coney We claim to have the best finish, the choicest skins, the latest styles and the lowest prices. An examination will convince you. Capes from $6.50 to $45.00.

GORMAN'S GRAND DEPOT

DR. REEVES 412 Spruce St., Scranton.

Dr. Reeves is now fully established at 412 Spruce street, Scranton. He has performed some wonderful cures and has gained the confidence of the public. He has come to STAY and will remain PERMANENTLY at his spruce street parlors. He has had long and varied experience in hospital and private practice and treats all acute and chronic diseases of men, women and children. He gives advice, sermons, and examinations FREE OF CHARGE. No one is turned away. He, with his assistants, treat all diseases of the nervous system, diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat, dyspepsia, rheumatism, lost vitality, premature weakness or decay in both sexes, female weakness and irregularities, nervous debility, catarrhs, tumors, cancers, strabismus, foot poisoning, fits, epilepsy, indigestion and errors of youth, lost manhood, eczema, scrofula, St. Vitus' dance, asthma, disease of the heart, lungs, liver, kidneys, bladder, stomach, etc.

OFFER TO THE PUBLIC FOR "CATARRH" Any one suffering with "Catarrh" who wishes to be PERMANENTLY and QUICKLY cured may receive FORTY DOLLARS TREATMENT FOR ONLY TEN DOLLARS. This offer holds good for thirty days. The doctor has discovered a SPECIFIC for this dreaded disease. You can treat and cure yourself and family with it at home. It never fails to cure. A trial treatment free. Office hours: Daily, 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Sundays, 10 to 12 and 2 to 4. Take elevator in Christian's hat store, or steps. Remember the name and number.

DR. REEVES 412 Spruce St., Scranton.

CARPETS, Oil Cloths, Linoleums, Curtains, Window Shades and Wall Papers. All the Latest Designs.

J. Scott Inglis 419 LACKAWANNA AVE. one doors above Wyoming House.

Mother! Mother! Mother!! Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain; cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Stroudsburg. The Wilkes-Barre and Eastern railroad has purchased of R. H. Kintner, of this borough, an acre of land near their shops for additional yard room. It was purchased of the Kontz property.

William Eilenberger and Harvey Hoffman are on a week's bicycling trip through the state. Seymour Jones, conductor on the Wilkes-Barre and Eastern railroad, who was arrested some time ago by Samuel Bell, of Bartonville, for assault and battery and ejection from the train, was discharged by Justice Drake as the prosecutor did not appear against him.

About 150 young men attended the first meeting of the Young Men's Christian association in the Reformed church on Sunday afternoon. It was addressed by Mr. B. Poaten in an able manner, and was very instructive. A male quartette rendered some charming selections. A meeting was held on Tuesday evening to perfect an organization.

Thomas Neasey of Spragueville was arrested here for passing bad checks. He lived about five years at Spragueville, and came there from Kentucky. He is about 33 years of age. Later he was released under $300 bail, Mrs. Neasey of Spragueville going on the bond. Quite a number of the merchants cashed his checks.

L. Christopher Neas, who served Zion's Reformed church of this place, will sail on Thursday next in the "Fuerst Bismarck" for Germany. Mr. Neas will take a post graduate course at the University of Berlin before going as a missionary to Japan.

J. D. Wood of Paterson, N. J., who ran away from the Central house leaving a horse and buggy, returned Saturday and sold the horse to Staples & Suttler. He settled everything satisfactorily to all concerned.

The Epworth league of the Stroudsburg Methodist Episcopal church gave a social and musical on Monday evening, to which the Epworth leaguers of East Stroudsburg were invited and responded by appearing in a body. The church was handsomely decorated and flowers, etc., lighted the eyes in every direction. Following is the programme: Song by league, "Look Up, Lift Up," prayer, F. B. Luce; speech, Rev. L. B. Hoffman; male quartette, "Star of the Evening," Messrs. Hutchinson, Flory, Northup, LaBar; solo, Miss Fannie Shafer, "Come in and Shut the Door," speech, Rev. Turner, male quartette, "A Catastrophe," Hutchinson, Flory, Northup, LaBar; solo, Miss Schafer, "Kissing Through the Telephone," male quartette, "I've Found a Friend," Hutchinson, Flory, Northup and LaBar. Refreshments were then served, consisting of ice cream, etc., followed by a parading song by the leaguers. Rev. Turner, of the East Stroudsburg Methodist Episcopal church, pronounced the benediction and all departed reporting a very enjoyable time. The literary society will meet next Monday evening.

Work is progressing rapidly on the Delaware Valley Electric railroad route, running from Stroudsburg to Port Jervis. They have now nearly two miles of road graded. The stockholders of the Keystone Fibre company have decided to run day and night to supply orders. Frank H. Smith, through F. W. Eilenberger, purchased the old school building and land on which it is situated on Cortland street, at the sale on Saturday for $2,860.

Ralph Deal, formerly of this place, now of Wilkes-Barre, spent Sunday in town visiting his lady friends. Balls have been ordered for the Delaware Valley Electric railroad, and will arrive in about two weeks. There are now men being put on every day. Miss Martens, of Orange, N. J., and Mrs. Horace Bush, of this borough, are away on a bicycle trip through New Jersey.

Rev. William Veenschoten, pastor of the Presbyterian church, this borough, has gone to Mariaboro, N. J., to assist the Rev. W. N. Todd in holding special meetings at that place. J. Johnson, of Trenton, N. J., is in town looking for a stolen horse.

Frank H. Smith, one of the early settlers of Barrett township, died at his residence near Mountain home on Monday about 5 a. m. Linford Borison, the well and favorably known land-lord of the Crystal Spring Hotel this borough, died on Sunday morning of typhoid fever. Mr. Borison was born at Delaware Water Gap about 35 years ago and farmed in that region until about 15 years ago when he moved to Upper Mt. Bethel in Northampton county. He remained there until last spring when he moved here and took possession of the hotel in which he died. He leaves a widow and one child. He was a man of excellent habits and highly esteemed by all. The funeral will take place on Wednesday morning. The interment will be at Stone church.

Miss Hoag, of Montrose, has entered the junior class. The Young Men's Christian Association meeting on Sunday afternoon was attended by a large audience of young men. The topic was, "The Reward of Church Going." The leader was Mr. Koehler, and he handled the subject in an able manner. Professor Brassfield made some very instructive and inspiring remarks, and all present went away with the impression that it was one of the best meetings they had attended.

The Ministerial Literary society held their meeting on Saturday evening last and was largely attended. The following is the programme: Recitation, Miss Holzman; essay, Esther Gray; oration, Mr. Coolbaugh; select reading, Miss Susie Evans; recitation, Florence Edinger; essay, Mr. Dutrich; duet, Messrs Talley and Edwards; recitation, Miss Newkirk; debate, resolved, "That cold water is more destructive than fire"—affirmative, Mr. Bachman, Miss Bowman; negative—Mr. Eidenberger, Miss Newlin; paper, Miss Anna Jones.

A surprise party was tendered Horace Inman, a student at the normal, at the residence of his parents, on Green street, on Saturday evening last. A select party of young ladies and gentlemen assembled to pay their respects and say good-bye, as the family move to Philadelphia this week. The evening was spent in a delightful manner, social amusements and games were indulged in. Refreshments were served during the evening. Among those who attended were: Misses Lena Staples, Florence Savacool, Rosa Burnett, Stella Warner, Gerrie Warner, Nellie Bantz, Beers, Rose Pomeroy, Mamie Dunn, Hattie Thompson, Emmie Michies, Elia Mutehler, Mina Hagaman, and John Sampson, Bert Davis, Norman Herrington, George Robeson, Milton Kistler, John Koffman, William Gish, Charles N. Mutchler, L. W. Freeland, Roe Suttwell and John Turner.

C. N. Homan, one of last year's students, is visiting friends at the normal. Professor Bortoleo, an instructor here last year, called on old friends at the school on Monday. The professor is going for the ministry at Philadelphia. Professor Kemp returned on Monday from a trip to Freehold, where he delivered a lecture. Miss Henry is at her home attending a sick sister.

Mrs. Katherine Hastie is visiting her daughter in Scranton. Miss Lottie Cope, of Nazareth, a graduate of the normal last year, was in town visiting her many friends over Sunday. Professor Hibelman, professor of mathematics, sang in the Lutheran church of Stroudsburg, of which his father is pastor. His solo work was very fine. Miss Edmund and Miss Bradley have gone to New York.

Professor Brassfield, formerly professor in mathematics, spent several days with a laser woman on a foot ball team and spending Sunday with us, leaving on Tuesday for Princeton. The Minisink and Shakespearean societies held their meetings on Saturday evening. The Delaware Lyceum at their regular meeting, addressed several new members and much enthusiasm was manifested in the meeting. The subject under discussion was "Resolved, that the pen has done more in civilization than the sword." The affirmative leader was P. M. Groul, negative, O. E. East, and the moderator was one of our members. The president appointed as judges Professor Taser, Mr. Gile and Mr. Eilenberger. Their decision was in favor of the negative.

A young man named Benner, a student at the normal met with a serious accident. In going down a flight of stairs he accidentally stumbled and fell from the top to the bottom. He was rendered unconscious by the fall and was removed to his room and a physician quickly summoned found one of his ribs broken and his side severely strained and bruised. Benner is actually stunned and his players on the team and the team will be considerably weakened by his accident.

Pittston. Tuesday night a violent rain set in here doing great damage to property. Telegraph and telephone wires of every description were razed to the ground, and the Main street was flooded and the losses caused thereby will amount to considerable. Particularly among those principally damaged are the cellars of Councilman J. H. Tigue, of the Fourth ward and Mrs. Costello, of Railroad street. The water rose to a height of eighteen inches in Mr. Tigue's cellar and fully as much in that of Mrs. Costello. Furniture and other articles which had been stored for the winter was completely ruined. In Mr. Tigue's cellar were several barrels, some filled, others partly filled with wine, whiskey and vinegar, all of which were well watered by the flood. Mr. Tigue estimates his loss at $300, and proposes to the board of assessors the borough if his claim is not allowed on presentation.

Thomas Daugherty, a brakeman on the Valley road, and residing in Hughestown, had two fingers smashed so badly while at work yesterday as to require amputation. Dr. Edgar Naisard, formerly of this place, now a resident of Stamford, Conn., was united in marriage Tuesday evening to Miss Fannie Kelly of this place. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Finnen in St. John's church, and was witnessed by a large number of friends. The newly wedded pair left for Stamford, where the groom has established himself as a dentist.

Miss Jean Thomas, daughter of the late William Thomas, was united in marriage yesterday to B. F. Dewey. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride, corner of Exeter and Washington streets, at noon, and was performed by the Rev. W. W. Smith, of Stamford, Conn., a brother-in-law of the groom. H. C. D-way, brother of the groom, was best man and Miss Caroline Thomas, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. After the ceremony was performed the company present sat down to a sumptuous wedding dinner which had been prepared by Caterer Mrs. Drake. The newly wedded couple left on an extended wedding tour for Buffalo and other cities.

Miss Bridget O'Malley died at the hospital, yesterday, of heart disease. The remains were removed to the home of her uncle, John Flynn, 293 Parsonsage street, and the funeral will occur Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The funeral of Miss Margaret Kennedy will occur from the family home at Port Griffith, this (Thursday) afternoon at 3 o'clock. Funeral services will be held at St. John's church, and interment will be in Market street cemetery.

The annual parade of the Pittston firemen will take place tomorrow afternoon. The parade will form in the following order: Burgess and town council of Pittston, burgess and town council of West Pittston, chief of fire department and assistants, Eagle Hose and Engine company No. 1, Niagara Engine company No. 2, Mechanics Hose company No. 2, Hook and Ladder company, a new company, West Pittston Hose company No. 1, West End Hose company No. 4. The Eagles will form on Broad street; Niagara on Water street; Mechanics and Hook and Ladder company on Main, between Broad and William; West Pittston and West Ends on William street. The line of march will be down Main to Railroad bridge and countermarch to Maloney's street, returning, cross Ferry bridge, up Susquehanna avenue to York avenue, down Spring street to Montgomery street, to Susquehanna avenue, cross lower bridge for review on Water street and disperse. The parade will start on two taps of the gong at 2.30 sharp. After the parade the famous Eagle drill squad will give an exhibition drill on the West Pittston school grounds, and the West Pittston racing team will give a 550-yard race against time. By order of George J. Llewellyn, chief engineer.

S. B. Drury, mate of steamer Arizona, had his foot badly jammed. Thomas' Electric Oil Line. Nothing equal to it for a quick pain reliever.

Montrose. Montrose fire department, not to be outdone by any, have had a fine new chemical. It is the property of Rough and Ready No. 1. C. P. Bell, of Scranton, was in town yesterday. Druggist A. B. Burns is able to be out after being confined to the house several days with sickness. Photographer Smith took a group picture of Montrose Hose company No. 2 after the parade last Friday, which is the finest one of the kind ever seen in Montrose.

The gate receipts at the fair held here last week was cleanest $1,000. The exhibit was one of the finest ever seen here. Daniel Brewster will spend the winter in the South for the benefit of his health. The members of the Epworth league are holding meetings each evening this week, except from last week. Fifty years ago yesterday David Hendrick was married to Miss Webster in this county. Yesterday afternoon a large number of their friends and members of the Old Fellows' society, of which both are prominent members, met at their pleasant home on Chestnut street and escorted them to the Montrose House, where an elaborate dinner was served, which by the way, was a complete surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Hendrick. After dinner they returned to their home where the size was spent in pleasant conversation until midnight, when a large number of invited guests assembled. Ice cream and cake were served, games were played and everyone enjoyed themselves. The worthy couple were the recipients of many beautiful and useful presents. Mr. and Mrs. Hendrick are among our most respected people and have spent the most of their fifty years of married life in this vicinity. Those present at the banquet at the Montrose house were the following: Dr. E. L. Hendrick and wife, Frank A. Hendrick, Friendsville; Mrs. E. H. Hendrick, E. H. Hendrick and wife, Miss Edith Hendrick, Great Bend; W. J. Baker and wife, Miss Clara Baker, Montrose; W. E. Steadman and wife, Elk Lake; Mrs. George J. Hendrick, Montrose; Mrs. E. T. Sherman, N. H. Sherman, A. F. Sherman, New York; Mrs. M. E. Hale, Dr. P. L. Hollister and wife, Wilkes-Barre; M. E. Biessecker and wife, Elk Lake; L. H. Lincoln and wife, Forest Lake; J. H. Miles, Jackson; John Mitchell and wife, Springville; Sheriff E. A. Leonard, E. B. East, assisted by Messrs. Albert Miller and wife, Montrose; E. B. Hamlin and wife, Wilkes-Barre; P. B. Handrick and wife, Franklin; T. H. Baker and wife, Dimock; W. F. Clark and wife, Jessup; O. S. Handrick and daughter, Clark's Summit; Lester Turrell and wife, Williams; D. Turrell and wife, Birch; Stephen Tettle and wife, Springville; Hendrick C. Miles and wife, William C. Miles, Dimock; William Small and wife, Liberty, Pa.; L. Stoddard and wife, Montrose; R. M. Handrick and wife, Frank B. Handrick, Miss Arline Handrick, Wilkes-Barre; E. H. Handrick, Tunkhannock; W. J. Handrick, Scranton; J. K. Aldrich and wife, Springville.

Minooka. There will be a regular meeting of the No. 184 Young Men's institute at their rooms this evening at 7.30 o'clock. Business of importance will be transacted and all members are requested to be present. The street cars in this place did not run on their usual hours yesterday on account of the washout near the South Side bridge, which was caused by rain and storm. It was fully 9 o'clock before the cars were able to reach this place.

The entertainment of the Young Men's Institute, No. 184, which is to take place on Oct. 23, will render the following programme: Instrumental solo, Prof. F. J. Davary; vocal solo, Miss Julia Donnelly; vocal solo, John Casey; vocal duet, Misses McDonough and Donnelly; vocal solo, M. M. J. Egan; vocal solo, John Drummy; recitation, Miss Eliza Rawson; song and dance, Messrs. O'Rourke and Cawley; violin solo, Samuel I. Mahoney; vocal solo, Miss Jennie Longhney; recitation, Miss Hannah Hughes; vocal duet, Misses Cawley and Mallin; vocal solo, Miss Anna McDonough; instrumental duet, Messrs. Honserath and Jones; recitation, Miss Laura Kiley; vocal solo, Miss Orla Langley; vocal solo, Miss May Clarke; vocal duet, Misses Lovring and Knapp; recitation, Master John F. Connolly; vocal solo, Thos. Fohn; monologue, Peter F. Cusick.

Jermyn. The Epworth League convention held here Tuesday was a grand success there were 160 delegates present. Rush Brook raised quite an excitement here yesterday. During the night it rained very hard and up to about 11 a. m. without any let up. On account of the saw mill which was built just west of us on this brook last spring a great many waste logs and rams were in the creek and they all came down and blocked against bridge, causing the water to run through the center of the town filling cellars and basements all along its course. The Ontario & Western traffic was delayed about 2 hours. To the great disappointment of all rain prevented the parade arranged for yesterday in honor of Father Mathew, the great temperance apostle. This afternoon the Jermyn branch will hold a picnic, first parading through the principal streets. It is hoped the weather may be fine and that there will be a good attendance. All will be made welcome.

For Burns, Scolds, Bruises and all pain and soreness of the flesh, the grand household remedy is Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Be sure you get the best.

Nicholson. Miss Conivie Williams is on the sick list. The Universalist Aid society will be held at Mrs. E. L. Bacon's Friday afternoon. Rain began pouring down here at 2 a. m. Wednesday and continued until about noon and by 5 p. m. the water was so high in Tunkhannock creek that it was in the fire boxes of the stationary boilers of the bridge company which are located under the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western railroad bridge.

Wyoming. Worthy Great Pocahontas, of Easton, will be at the Pocahontas rooms here Friday evening. A reception was given Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ready, of Sixth street, Monday evening. The following were present: Dr. Barton, Charles Penny, William Davis, George Daily, Albert Burnett, Rev. Robert Ready, Kent R. Jones, Miss Mame Davis, Laura Davis, Jennie Garnett, Emily Harsh, Mame Cheworth, Hannah Ready, Mary Ready and Ed Robinson, all of Wyoming, and Miss Lizzie Williams, of Parsons. Refreshments were served at 10 o'clock, after which the parties left for their homes wishing Mr. and Mrs. Ready a long and prosperous life. A social will be held at the home of John Wilder Tuesday. Mrs. Ready, mother of Thomas Ready, who is in her one hundred and fourth year, has so far recovered from her recent illness as to be out around the yard on Tuesday. A social was held at the home of John Wilder Tuesday. Mrs. Robinson is ill.

Carbondale. Edward Yarrington left yesterday for a visit with friends in Jersey City. Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Griswold and son Charles of Pottsville are the guests of Mrs. John S. Berry of Canaan street. The gymnasium paraphernalia of the defunct Young Men's Christian association, which cost $135, has been purchased for $50 by the Honesdale Athletic association. Cards are out announcing the coming marriage of Miss Lena Everetts, of Lake Ariel, to John C. Reynolds, of Canaan street, this city. The event will occur at the home of the bride's parents at 12 o'clock noon, on Wednesday, Oct. 17. The Lackawanna Valley Rapid Transit company have purchased from Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Geary, of South Church street, a tract of land in Fell township, in the vicinity of the Wilson Creek tunnel, for the consideration of $1,050. On the property purchased the company will erect the power plant for the lines north of this city. The Dalaware and Hudson company paid their Gravity railroad and shop employes in this city yesterday, and today their steam road employes will be paid. A game of football has been arranged to be played in this city on Saturday of this week between the High school team of this city and a Wilkes-Barre team. The increase in the freight traffic has caused the necessity of putting another freight train on the Ninesch branch of the Dalaware and Hudson, leaving this city about 6 o'clock p. m.

Factoryville. Miss Amy Cosner of East Newton was the guest of Miss Mabel Reynolds on Tuesday. Charles Tourpe who has been quite ill is reported better. Stanley Reynolds of Avoca made his parents a flying visit this week. Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Tourpe attended the corner stone laying of the Commercial Travelers Home at Binghamton Tuesday.

Mr. A. J. Davenport. Caused large boils on my face and neck. I was told to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, and after using 3 bottles was free from all eruptions. I am perfectly cured and in excellent health. A. J. DAVENPORT, Milton, N. J. Hood's Pills are purely vegetable and do not pain, purge, or grip. Try a box.

THE BELL CLOTHING HOUSE 230 Lackawanna Ave. SCRANTON, PA. Are right in line, as usual, with everything that's New, Elegant and Stylish in FALL CLOTHING. Better Tailor Made Clothes for less money than you get elsewhere.

Men's Fine Stylish All Wool Suits in Checks, mixed or plain materials, sold usually at $12.00, selling at $7.50. Better suits of Black Cheviots and Talbots Double Breasted Suits or Fine Catways, worth all of $15.00, selling at 200 Lacka. ave. for $9.00. Men's Extra Fine Worsteds Tweeds Whipped and Homespun Suits superbly made, equal to custom quality, other's charge $20.00 for such quality, our price but $12.50 (Extra fine black suits, included in this lot.) Boys' all Wool Suits, worth $3.50, at $1.95. Finer ones in Cassimeres and Worsteds worth $5.00, at $3.35. BARGAIN TRUMPS IN BOYS' LONG PANTS SUITS, AT $3.50, $4.75 AND $6.00 RESPECTIVELY. WORTH DOUBLE THE PRICE.

THE BELL CLOTHING HOUSE. "Always the Cheapest." FIGN OF THE BELL. 230 Lackawanna Ave., SCRANTON.

LEADERS OF LOW PRICES THE FAIR 400-402 Lackawanna Ave. Special attention is called to our Millinery and Cloak Departments THE FINEST IN SCRANTON. GRAND DISPLAY THIS WEEK. GRAND FALL OPENING SALE MONDAY, OCTOBER 8.

CHENILLE CURTAINS Figured all over, fringed top and bottom $5.00 per pair. These were previously sold at $7.00, six colors to select from.

TABLE COVERS A new line of Chenille and Tapestry covers. Rich Velour Table covers, Elegant line of Goblin Tapestry covers and Pillow covers.

BASKETS Four sizes of Hampers, in a variety of colors, All new. Waste and Scrap baskets.

SCREENS AND EASELS All prices and kinds.

KERR & SIEBECKER 406 and 408 Lacka. Avenue. BRANCH AT CARBONDALE.

ECONOMY TALK

The Greatest Bargains Offered By Others

Easily matched and discounted. Prove it by a test. The Economy wants the people—the experienced housekeepers and intelligent buyers—to realize this. They want them to come to their mammoth stores and investigate for themselves. They have stood by the people and with the people for the past five years; furnished hundreds of homes to the satisfaction of their patrons, and are today the acknowledged leaders of the Cash or Credit House Furnishing Business of Scranton. RELIABILITY is the cause of their great hold upon the people. When they buy from the Economy they know they are getting full value for their money. That is why they are popular and their business constantly increasing.

A Handsome Cathedral Strike Clock, American Onyx Finish, with every purchase of $50 or over. Or an Elegant 100-Piece Dinner Set with every $75 purchase or over, for Cash or Credit.

THE BELL CLOTHING HOUSE. "Always the Cheapest." FIGN OF THE BELL. 230 Lackawanna Ave., SCRANTON.

Economy Furniture 225 & 227 WYOMING AVENUE.